MEMORANDUM FOR: Special Assistant to the DCI for Compartmentation

FROM:

Chairman

SUBJECT:

Presentation at SECOM Seminar

1. The Security Committee is holding a seminar at the [redacted] on 8-9 October 1980, to discuss and chart directions on security issues of significant Intelligence Community interest. The security ramifications of [redacted] implementation are a prime example of such issues. [redacted]

2. We would like to have you join us for dinner on 8 October and address Security Committee members on [redacted] security aspects afterwards, followed by a question and answer period to permit coverage of particular concerns by our members. We would like your address to focus on what you see as most significantly needed from the security professionals in the Intelligence Community. Within that context please structure your talk as you see fit. We plan to have dinner from 5:30 to 6:30, with your address scheduled for 7:00 to 8:00, followed by an hour's question and answer period. We look forward to your helping us better to understand how the Community's security components fit into [redacted] [redacted]
